

Team Activity

Instructions:

Your team will be required to develop both an oral and written statement that addresses the following scenario.

- The teamwork process will be assessed during the preparation portion.
- The team will submit a written statement of their findings at the end of one hour.
- The team will be required to give an oral presentation.
- You will have eight minutes to make the oral presentation.
- There will be a five-minute period for questions.
- Materials for visuals are available on the resource tables.

Scenario:

You are members of an advisory committee. The task is to review the Paris Agreement and provide advice and recommendations on whether the United States should continue or withdrawal from the Agreement. You will support your position to the review board.

.