Table of Contents

Below you will find links to resources that accompany the major components of the national convention and expo. (Some links will take you to website resources while other links will take you to specific sections of this document. In each section of this document, look for the home button to come back to this page.)

Convention FAQ

Have questions about the national convention and expo? Check out the convention section of the FFA Help Center.

Pre-Planning/Welcome/Alignment to Educational Standards

Resources and letters to validate convention attendance and help you prepare for the event (letter to administration, technology requirements, etc.).

Planning

Resources and tips to help design your chapter's convention experience, such as ideas for how to participate and plan your schedule.

Choice/Activity Board

There are two choice/activity boards — one that includes activities that must be completed while at the convention and one that includes activities that can be completed virtually if students are not at the convention. Find all the student activity sheets that go with the Choice Boards in this Box folder.

General Sessions

Experience the retiring addresses from the 2024-25 National FFA Officers and recognition of FFA members and their accomplishments. Find activity sheets that will help students process what they hear.

Media

Resources and activities to showcase your experiences and stories to your family, friends and community using social media.

Workshops

Teacher, student, and alumni and supporters workshops are in person with previously held student workshops archived to use virtually. Links to previously held student workshop videos and accompanying reflection worksheets are provided. Each workshop will vary in length from 15 to 60 minutes.

Exposition Hall Highlights

Resources to discover the vast array of individuals involved in the agriculture industry from innovative companies to educational institutions.

Awards and Recognition

Resources to learn about the different programs through which we recognize students for their hard work and achievements.

Service

Resources to help plan a service project for your community during the month of convention as well as prepare for one during National FFA Week in February 2026.

Alumni and Supporters

Resources to learn about the opportunities available for development in this area. See a list of in-person events for alumni members attending convention. Also, find student worksheets that help students explore alumni opportunities and the Forever Blue Network.

New Farmers of America 90th

Celebrate 90 years of the New Farmers of America through a fun worksheet activity! The NFA was founded in 1935 and created to serve Black vocational agriculture students in segregated Southern schools. Before merging with FFA, NFA thrived with its own traditions, leadership and impact. Join us in celebrating 90 years of history and leadership.

Other Activities

Activities for students to learn and discover more about FFA and make connections with fellow members from across the country.

Post-Convention Thoughts and Reflections

Activities to help students reflect on their experiences during convention.

*You will have access to the virtual components of convention and workshop materials after convention, which are housed through Box. You can find these resources at FFA.org/my-toolbox/instructor/educator-resources/.

PRE-PLANNING

Items included in this section are meant to welcome you to the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo as well as provide some materials that may be useful as you plan to attend.

ADMINISTRATION LETTER

This letter from National FFA Chief Program Officer Christine White explains the educational relevancy of convention and the social-emotional development of students after experiencing the opportunities provided by attending the National FFA Convention & Expo. Be sure to refer to the Health and Safety protocols for attending convention in person.

Dear Administrators and Educators,

The 98th National FFA Convention & Expo is just around the corner, and we're thrilled to invite your FFA chapter to take part in this year's event, happening Oct. 29-Nov. 1, 2025, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Recognized for its educational value and alignment with national learning standards, the National FFA Convention & Expo provides an immersive experience where students deepen their knowledge, explore career possibilities and grow as leaders.

In Indianapolis, attendees will have the opportunity to:

- Engage with the National FFA Expo, featuring hundreds of leading agricultural businesses, colleges and organizations showcasing innovation, sustainability and emerging career opportunities across food, fiber and natural resources systems.
- Participate in dynamic leadership workshops tailored to support personal growth, communication, goal setting and advocacy — all aligned with the FFA mission of developing premier leadership, personal growth and career success.
- Explore hands-on learning through student and chapter experiences including career success tours, competitions, technology showcases and interactive exhibits focused on the future of agriculture and STEM.
- Give back through National Days of Service, where members embody the FFA motto "Living to Serve" by making a meaningful impact in the Indianapolis community.
- Witness excellence on stage during general sessions that recognize top student and chapter achievements, highlight inspiring member stories and feature engaging keynote speakers who challenge students to lead boldly.

For educators, we are pleased to offer a suite of professional development sessions designed to strengthen instructional practices, provide classroom-ready resources and foster collaboration among agriculture educators from across the country.

The convention is more than a celebration — it is an extension of classroom learning, providing real-world application of concepts taught throughout the year.

We hope your chapter will join us at the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo. For the latest updates and planning tools, please visit convention.FFA.org.

Sincerely,

Christine White
Chief Program Officer
National FFA Organization

COMPETITIVE EVENTS LETTER

This letter from National FFA Chief Program Officer Christine White explains the educational relevancy of competitive events for students who have the opportunity to compete at the National FFA Convention & Expo. Use this letter with teachers/colleagues, administrators, parents/guardians, advisory board, etc.

August 30, 2025

Dear Administrator,

We're excited to share some outstanding news — students from your school have been named national finalists for one of the prestigious National FFA awards at the upcoming 98th National FFA Convention & Expo!

Congratulations on fostering such exceptional student achievement. This recognition places your students among the best in the nation and provides them with the opportunity to be celebrated on a national stage in front of more than 65,000 FFA members, advisors, educators and industry leaders from across the country.

We look forward to celebrating their accomplishments in person this fall, Oct. 29-Nov. 1, 2025, in Indianapolis, Ind. The National FFA Convention & Expo has been recognized for its alignment with national education standards, enriching content and strong educational value.

In addition to being honored, your students will experience a wide range of opportunities that reinforce classroom learning and open doors to future success. These include:

- Connecting with top companies and colleges at the National FFA Expo, including representatives from Fortune 500 businesses, post-secondary institutions and government agencies.
- Participating in student workshops focused on leadership, personal development and career readiness.
- Exploring emerging trends and technologies in food, agriculture and environmental sustainability.
- Networking with FFA members from across the country, fostering collaboration and inspiration among peers.

Educators will also benefit from professional development workshops designed to enhance classroom instruction and support continued growth in agricultural education.

This remarkable event is made possible thanks to the generosity of corporate partners like Bayer, CHS Foundation, John Deere, Tractor Supply Company and many others who share our commitment to student leadership and success.

We are proud to recognize your students' accomplishments and hope you will join us in Indianapolis to support and celebrate their achievements at the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo.

Sincerely,

Christine White
Chief Program Officer
National FFA Organization

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR TRACK

Do you have an administrator attending the 98th National FFA Convention with you? An administrator could be your principal, assistant principal, CTE director, career development coordinator, curriculum and instructional management coordinator, etc. Give them the red-carpet treatment with National FFA staff as they offer two sessions at convention just for administrators.

The School Administrator Track includes two sessions to choose from:

- Wednesday, Oct. 29, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
- Thursday, Oct. 30, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Sessions will provide administrators with a short reception, welcome, networking time with other administrators and an explanation of the educational relevance of the national convention and expo. There will also be a behind-the-scenes tour of the general session floor in Lucas Oil Stadium.

Advisors can register their administrators for one of the sessions during regular registration for the 98th National FFA Convention.

PERSONAL CODE OF CONDUCT

98TH NATIONAL FFA CONVENTION & EXPO

FFA Code of Ethics

By attending or participating in the National FFA Convention & Expo, you agree to abide by the Code of Conduct and the FFA Code of Ethics. FFA members always conduct themselves to be a credit to the organization, chapter, school, community and family. As an FFA member, I pledge to:

- Develop my potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success.
- Make a positive difference in the lives of others.
- Dress neatly and appropriately for the occasion.
- Respect the rights of others and their property.
- Be courteous, honest and fair with others.
- Communicate in an appropriate, purposeful and positive manner.
- Demonstrate good sportsmanship by being modest in winning and generous in defeat.
- Make myself aware of FFA programs and activities and be an active participant.
- Conduct and value a supervised agricultural experience program.
- Strive to establish and enhance my skills through agricultural education in order to enter a successful career.
- Appreciate and promote diversity in our organization.

Code of Conduct

All convention and expo participants are expected to obey all local, state and federal laws. Participants shall abstain from abusive, disruptive or inappropriate behavior before, during or after the event in all forms, including in-person attendance, digital or social media interaction and any other form of communication. The National FFA Organization may act in its discretion to address any attendee(s), group(s) or participant(s) it believes fail to uphold the criteria of the FFA Code of Ethics or Code of Conduct, including but not limited to revoking event access without refund or reduction of any fees paid or payable, removal from participation in awards and recognition programs, and revocation of awards and recognition earned. Please contact the Control Center (Indiana Convention Center (ICC) Room 116) if you've observed or experienced a violation of the FFA Code of Ethics or Code of Conduct.

HOW CAN YOU HELP IN AN EMERGENCY?

In an emergency, many things can happen at once, and critical areas of the assessment may be left out. To help avoid this, many emergency medical technicians use an acronym to help them remember the important questions to ask. This acronym is known as a SAMPLE history. The acronym helps identify six immediate pieces of information about a patient to aid them in determining their next course of action. Below is a card we highly recommend that you have on file for each student.

There are two recommended ways to use the S.A.M.P.L.E. card. One, keep a copy with you. Second, have students keep a copy of their specific card in their wallets or the inside pocket of their FFA jackets. This will be of great help should you not be in the immediate area in case of an emergency.

TECHNOLOGY FOR VIRTUAL ACCESS

With the National FFA Convention & Expo having both an in-person and a virtual component, we want to ensure you and your students are prepared with the appropriate access to technology if you are joining virtually. Below is a list of websites to whitelist to experience the virtual convention and information to help you test your technology prior to the start of convention and discover what to do if you do not have access.

List of Websites to Whitelist

The websites below will be used during the National FFA Convention & Expo. We encourage you and your students to test them prior to the start of convention.

- convention.FFA.org
- FFA.org
- <https://FFA.box.com>
- <https://vimeo.com>

*If Vimeo is blocked by the school district, we recommend you ask your school district to temporarily allow access. Additionally, you may provide your district IT department with these instructions so they may still block Vimeo yet allow embedded videos to play on the virtual convention site.

If you can access all links:

- You are ready for the start of the virtual component of convention.

If you cannot access one or multiple links:

- Reach out to your district IT department for help to get the websites unblocked for use during the National FFA Convention & Expo.

PLANNING

This section will include information to help you plan an engaging convention experience for students in person and virtually. You will find a planning template as well as information on the background of convention as well as the pin challenge and service events.

- Brief background information on the National FFA Convention & Expo, including the following:
 - History of the National FFA Convention & Expo.
 - Delegate process.
 - National FFA Officer election process.
- Review of the components of convention, including what is offered in person and virtually.
- Tips on how to participate in the virtual component of the national convention and expo.
 - Discover FFA Live!
- Template to make your own schedule and/or a schedule for students.
- Student Challenge: Collectible Lapel Pins
- Student Activity Sheets: Direct access to the individual student activity sheets for easy upload to learning management systems or printing for classwork can be found here.
- National Day of Service Events at Convention: Schedule
- Interactive Toolkit for National Days of Service: Click here to access the interactive toolkit.
 - How to utilize the interactive toolkit with students: Give the toolkit to your chapter members to plan a day of service project during convention week. Divide your students into small groups and task them with creating a service project during October. Then, students can present their service project ideas, and the class/FFA chapter can vote on which one they want to implement. Give students the "Living to Serve: Interactive Toolkit" worksheet to complete.

BACKGROUND OF NATIONAL FFA CONVENTION & EXPO

Brief History of the National FFA Convention & Expo

Why do we have a national convention each year?

Each fall, more than 70,000 FFA members, advisors, educators, supporters and guests from across the country come together to participate in sessions, competitive events, career success tours, educational tours, and student and teacher leadership workshops, to experience an expo and shopping mall, to volunteer and to network. The convention is an event where members not only compete, network, volunteer and have fun, but they also learn about the diverse careers in the industry of agriculture and are recognized for their achievements.

The first national convention was held in Kansas City, Mo., with 33 delegates from 18 states.

During each convention, official business is conducted by the national officers and member delegates. The National FFA Delegate Experience ensures the National FFA Organization remains a grassroots organization that serves students at the local level.

Convention Delegates

The delegate experience brings together 475 student leaders from across the nation. Students share ideas and perspectives that propel the organization forward. Delegates come from each of the organization's 52 state associations, with delegation sizes determined by each association's percent of overall organizational membership. The National FFA Delegate Experience has been an FFA tradition since 1928. For more information on the delegate process, visit FFA.org/delegates.

Election of National FFA Officers

How are the National FFA Officers elected?

Each year, six student members are selected to represent the National FFA Organization as National FFA Officers. Members must have received an American FFA Degree and be selected by their state association to be eligible for national office. National officers travel more than 100,000 miles during their year of service representing the organization. To learn more about the process of becoming a national officer, visit FFA.org/national-ffa-officers/.

CONVENTION COMPONENTS

For the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo, students, advisors and guests will be able to engage in both virtual and in-person events. Below are the components that will be available during the in-person convention experience versus what will be available in a virtual format for any registered student, advisor or guest to experience.

MAKING AN IMPACT

Directions: Complete the following activity about a National FFA Officer's retiring address or a keynote speaker's comments from the National FFA Convention & Expo.

Speaker
Name:

Message Title:

In one sentence, what is the overarching message?

In each cloud, write down one quote or statement from the presentation that is meaningful or inspirational to you.

What do these two quotes/statements mean to you?

In three or more sentences, describe how you will apply this message in your life, your school and your community.

MAKING AN IMPACT

Directions: Complete the following activity about a National FFA Officer's retiring address or a keynote speaker's comments from the National FFA Convention & Expo.

What is the main subject of the retiring address or keynote speaker's message?

Write down one quote/phrase from the presentation that is meaningful or inspirational to you. Explain why or how it impacts you.

What are three things you have learned or taken away from this message?

How would you summarize this message to explain it to your friends?

How can you apply what you learned from the message in your life today?

In the future?

Create a hashtag for this message.

MAKING AN IMPACT

Directions: Complete the following activity about a National FFA Officer's retiring address or a keynote speaker's comments from the National FFA Convention & Expo.

Message Title:

What is your initial reaction after watching this message?

Summarize the message in two sentences.

What is a quote/statement from the speech that resonated with you? Explain why.

What do you think is the key takeaway from this message?

How can you apply it in your own life?

What does this message make you think about in relation to your own personal growth?

EMPOWER

Directions: Feel empowered through your journey at the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo. Complete the following activity after watching a National FFA Officer's retiring address or a keynote speaker's comments from the National FFA Convention & Expo.

Part 1

1. What is the speaker's name?
2. Explain how this retiring address/keynote is connected to the FFA values statements, mission, vision or code of ethics.
3. How do retiring addresses/keynote speakers inspire and motivate FFA members?
4. What was the overall message or lesson? How can you apply this to your own life and FFA involvement?
5. Reflect on your own experience while listening to or watching this speech. What resonated with you the most, and why?
6. What visual elements accompany this speech, such as stage setup, lighting or images?
 - a. How do these elements enhance the message?
7. What did you learn about the speaker?
 - a. Why did this stand out?
8. Create a list of three vocabulary words from this speech and define them.
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
9. Create an image that summarizes the speech and then explain your drawing in three sentences

Part 2

After watching a National FFA Officer's retiring address or a keynote speaker's comments from the National FFA Convention & Expo, you will plan your own. Imagine yourself delivering a retiring address or keynote speech at a future National FFA Convention. What message would you convey, and why? Use the mind map below to brainstorm your ideas, and then create a rough draft.

Title:

- Topic or theme of your speech

Introduction:

- Get the audience's attention (hook).
- Brief introduction of the topic
- Share a brief story or example that directly relates to the theme/topic.
- Your "why"

Body points (three):

- Main points of your message
- Use transitional phrases or words such as again, and then, finally, next, lastly, what's more, in addition, first (second, etc.)
- Use stories, personal experiences or humor to add interest and reinforce each point
- Use descriptive words (adjectives) to help the audience visualize what you say and keep them interested

Conclusion:

- Summarize what you said
- Why should the audience care?
- Call to action

For the mind map, you will begin with the main concept or topic; this will serve as the main bubble. From there, create subtopics that will branch off the main idea. These tend to be your three body points. Once your subtopics are complete, start including support points. These will be the details of your body points. See the example below:

Use the space on the next page to create your own mind map! You can use the template provided or create your own.

Keynote/Retiring Address Outline Draft

FFA LIVE! THE STORY BEFORE AND AFTER THE STAGE

Directions:

Watch live or select a video of one student who is being recognized on the National FFA stage at a general session and watch their FFA Live! interview while completing questions in Part 1. Once done, continue to Part 2 to learn more.

Part 1

What is the FFA member's name? _____

Where is the FFA member from (chapter and state)? _____

Describe why the FFA member is being recognized.

What is something you learned about this student member's accomplishment that you found interesting?

What is something you learned or heard that you could apply to your own FFA journey?

Part 2

During the FFA Live! Interview, you learned about the FFA member's accomplishments and can see the pride beaming from the FFA member. Let's take a deeper look at the opportunity the member experienced. Using FFA.org, explore the award you just learned about and complete the activity below.

What are three steps needed for success for this accomplishment?

- 2.
- 3.

In the space provided, draw a picture of what success would look like for you.

EXTRA, EXTRA! READ ALL ABOUT IT!

Directions:

Write a two-paragraph news release/article about a general session during convention highlighting the speakers, messages and major happenings. Use the tips below to help you construct your article/news release.

Picture:

TIPS for a successful article:

1. Address the who, what, when, where and why.
2. Start off with a catchy first sentence.
3. Quote important information.
4. Be straightforward.
5. Use appropriate/correct vocabulary.

MEDIA, PROMOTION AND ADVOCACY

Use the following resources during the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo to have your students share your chapter's story and their experiences during the event.

Social Media Tips and Tricks Guide: Tell the world about FFA! Thousands of voices spreading the message across social media elevates awareness of FFA, and that's where you come in. Your chapter's story is important in helping others learn who we are, what we do and about the diversity of FFA across the country. Implement these top five tips for using your voice on social media to promote your chapter and FFA during the national convention and expo.

Social Media Challenge: Challenge your students to post on social media during convention week. Have students take pictures of their social media posts and have classes or the FFA chapter choose their favorite one. You can also post the pictures around the room to showcase their convention experiences.

Social Media Post Examples: Utilize these examples to help plan your social media posts for the national convention and expo.

Press Release Template: Use this template to share your chapter's plans for participating in the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo. An editable version of the press release can be found here.

Student Activity Sheets: Direct access to the individual student activity sheets for easy upload to learning management systems or printing for classwork can be found here.

SOCIAL MEDIA TIPS AND TRICKS GUIDE

Tell the world about FFA! Thousands of voices spreading the FFA message across social media elevates awareness of FFA, and that's where you come in. Your chapter's story is important in helping others learn who we are, what we do and about the diversity of FFA across the country.

Pick one or two social platforms to concentrate on. Don't spread yourself too thin. It's better to be in one place with great stories than everywhere with mediocre stories.

Which two social platforms will you concentrate on?

1. _____

2. _____

Brainstorm: Before convention, plan your posts. You can even write some of them ahead of time. Planning will save time during convention week so that you can enjoy the celebration too! Just leave some room for spontaneity. In the boxes below, compose two posts for each social platform you selected above. Read the tips below to help you plan!

Social Platform 1: _____

2.

Social Platform 2: _____

1.

2.

Here are our top five tips for using your voice on social media to elevate your chapter and FFA during the National FFA Convention & Expo!

Tip 1: Use #FFA25 and tag @NationalFFA on all your social posts so people can find it and National FFA can share the amazing stories you're telling.

Tip 2: Share what you and your chapter are doing during convention, but don't forget the rest of the year. Does someone in your chapter have an interesting or unique SAE? Share it! Does your chapter have a Living to Serve project? Share it! And of course, share your FFA convention week activities too!

Tip 3: Remember your FFA voice — a positive, respectful and inspirational tone. If individuals comment on your posts with unkind words, resist the urge to argue with negative comments. You won't change any minds, and it will just ruin your day. We like to say, "Hug your haters."

Tip 4: Use Instagram/Facebook stories to tell stories. For instance, your story could be an ongoing "scrapbook" of that day's FFA convention week activities.

Tip 5: Try ending your social post with a question or ask others to share their stories in the comments. This will help create engagement and conversation among your followers.

Brainstorm: Use this space to brainstorm a list of photos and videos that could be used. Don't have any that will work? Brainstorm pictures and videos that can be taken!

Use the highest quality photos and videos you have access to in your posts. These tell the best stories and generate the most engagement.

If someone is being vulgar, bullying or posting unrelated comments on your posts, hide them. It's good practice to have user guidelines on your page in the About section. Ours is on the National FFA website found here: FFA.org/social-media-user-policy/

Compose some guidelines that you could include to help avoid vulgarity, bullying or posting of unrelated comments.

MOST importantly, every member and every chapter have a valuable FFA story. Don't be afraid to share yours. We know it will be interesting!

SOCIAL MEDIA CHALLENGE

Directions: Use the template on the following page to create your social media plan for convention and get approval from the chapter advisor and school administration. As you post, take pictures and share with your chapter/class and advisor. See below for examples.

Use #FFA25 when posting on social media about the national convention and expo.

Examples:

Facebook: "I'm pumped for this year's 98th National FFA Convention & Expo. What are you most excited about? Comment below! #FFA25"

Instagram Story: "Wearing my new convention tee for #FFA25. Who else is wearing theirs?"

Snapchat: Share a picture of you participating in a student workshop. Caption: "Love learning with members across the country!"

TikTok: Create a video highlighting your favorite parts of convention. Caption: "#FFA25 Best National Convention EVER!"

Other Examples:

- During convention, post a picture of yourself watching a student workshop or live general session, experiencing the expo hall or repping in your FFA gear!
- Counting down the days to convention? Post a countdown and what you are looking forward to.
- After convention, post a reflection about your experience.

Student Leaders Prepare for the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo

INDIANAPOLIS (Monday, Oct. 6, 2025/National FFA Organization) — In a few weeks, FFA members and supporters from across the country will celebrate agricultural education and agriculture during the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo, Oct. 29-Nov. 1.

This time-honored tradition will be in person and hosted by the city of Indianapolis.

It's an opportunity for students to be exposed to new career paths and opportunities while celebrating the accomplishments these future leaders have made over the past year. Throughout the week, students will attend general convention sessions where they will be inspired by their peers and, in the expo, explore various career paths. In addition, attendees can participate in career success tours and student and teacher workshops. Those in attendance can also participate in a service event while FFA members across the country can join the National Days of Service in their local communities.

General convention sessions will be aired live on the FFA Live! streaming broadcast. FFA members and supporters can tune in and watch gavel-to-gavel coverage of the event. To learn more, visit convention.FFA.org.

The National FFA Organization is a school-based national youth leadership development organization of more than 1,027,273 student members as part of 9,235 local FFA chapters in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

About National FFA Organization

The National FFA Organization is a school-based national youth leadership development organization of more than 1,027,273 student members as part of 9,235 local FFA chapters in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The FFA mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. For more, visit the National FFA Organization online at FFA.org and on Facebook, Instagram and LinkedIn.

About National FFA Foundation

The National FFA Foundation builds partnerships with industry, education, government, other foundations and individuals to secure financial resources that recognize FFA member achievements, develop student leaders and support the future of agricultural education. A separately registered nonprofit organization, the foundation is governed by a board of trustees that includes the national FFA president, educators, business leaders and individual donors. For more, visit FFA.org/Give.

CONVENTION WORKSHOPS

The 2025 convention workshops will be available during convention in the convention center as well as some pre-recorded workshops from previous years. Each pre-recorded workshop is from a previous national convention and will vary in length from 15 to 30 minutes. All in-person workshops will be one hour in length. To see a full listing of in-person student and teacher workshops, visit the workshops page.

Teacher Workshops: Workshops are designed to be engaging and provide professional development for teachers on various topics to aid in the classroom and FFA chapter. Workshops will be organized by career pathway. Feel free to download the notes sheet for each workshop to help you gather your thoughts in one place.

- Notes Sheet: to help you capture your thoughts during each workshop

Student Workshops: Workshops are designed to be engaging and interactive. They will be organized into the following categories: Advocacy, Service, Careers, Leadership and Social/Emotional Health. Students can use this note sheet to help them reflect on the workshops they choose to attend.

After students have participated in an in-person or virtual workshop, have them develop a mini-workshop or speech about a topic they feel passionate about using the “Develop a Mini-Workshop/Speech” activity sheet and rubric. Students can choose to complete this activity digitally using a resource of your choice.

New this year: There will be new and additional pins offered this year for the pin challenge!

What Workshops Interest Me? Have students read over the workshop titles and descriptions on the convention website and select the top three that seem interesting and inspiring to them. Have students complete the activities on the “Which Workshops Interest Me?” activity sheet.

Student Activity Sheets: Direct access to the individual student activity sheets for easy upload to learning management systems or printing for classwork can be found here.

Collectible Lapel Pins: When students attend a student workshop, they will receive a Gold Star Lapel Pin. This year, students can collect five lapel pins by being involved in convention. See more information here.

WHICH WORKSHOPS INTEREST ME?

Directions: Read over the workshop titles and descriptions on the convention website, and select the top three that seem interesting and inspiring to you. Record the workshop titles in the box below. *Note: If attending convention virtually, only select those that are pre-recorded. If you are attending in person, choose from in-person or pre-recorded workshops.

EXPOSITION HALL HIGHLIGHTS

The exposition hall is a space to discover the vast array of individuals involved in the agriculture industry from innovative companies to educational institutions.

- FFA Experience Booth:
 - Students who visit the FFA Experience Booth in the National FFA Expo will have a chance to see the FFA Student Handbook come to life with interactive activities, life-size officer paraphernalia, jacket displays and informational panels just for them! While visiting the booth, complete the FFA Flag activity in the corner of the booth to earn your FFA Flag lapel pin. Also, be sure to grab a Connect Four Challenge card from the information desks. Once the activity is completed, students can redeem it for a one-of-a-kind FFA T-shirt! NEW THIS YEAR – learn how the National Officers are creating an engaging, supportive, growth-focused and welcoming organization, and make your commitment to help. Also, learn more about agriculture careers and famous FFA alumni in our new and improved alumni corner!
- Ed Resources Booth:
 - Teachers who visit the Ed Resources Booth located in “teachers world” will learn more about the free resources the National FFA provides. While visiting the booth, complete the activity to receive a free T-shirt and new teacher’s lapel pin!
- Sustainability Booth:
 - Students who visit the sustainability booth will learn about the different aspects of sustainability through interactive activities. After completing the process, students will receive a lapel pin!
- Alumni and Supporters Booth:
 - Want to know more about FFA Alumni and Supporters? Swing by the booth to receive more information and free professional headshots.
- Living to Serve Booth:
 - Join in on the service project going on during convention expo hours to receive a Living to Serve lapel pin.
- Companies and Organizations:
 - Logo Activity: Have students match company logos to the agricultural pathway they represent. This can be done virtually or in the expo.
 - Get to Know Us: Have students visit a minimum of two companies/organizations per pathway and complete the “Get to Know Agricultural Companies and Organizations” worksheet. Students will need a worksheet for each one they visit. If attending virtually, students will explore company websites.
- NEW! “Where in the Agriscience Fair Research Expo are the National Officers?”
 - This year’s Agriscience Fair Research Expo features a fun, interactive scavenger hunt! Put on your Carmen Sandiego detective hat and find the National Officers hidden among the posters! Discover their involvement in the Agriscience Fair Award program, learn about their research and see how their projects can spark your own ideas. Finish the scavenger hunt for a chance to win!
- Educational Institutions: Have students visit a minimum of three educational institutions either in the expo or online (if attending virtually) and complete the “Educational Institutions” worksheet.
- Student Activity Sheets: Direct access to the individual student activity sheets for easy upload to learning management systems or printing for classwork can be found here.

LOGO ACTIVITY

Directions: Match the company logo to the agricultural pathway they represent. Cut out the logos below and paste in the provided table. If you don't have access to a printer, you can click on the logo and cut and paste in the table or write the company names in the table. (Each logo is also linked to the company website if you need more information on the company.)

AFNR PATHWAY EXPLANATION

Agribusiness Systems includes companies that connect the business world with agriculture by determining how to effectively use resources for profit and contribute to successful agriculture production. This can include crop production, farm equipment, seed supply, marketing, natural resources and animal services.

Animal Systems includes companies that work directly with animals or work with products that come from animals. Some companies treat diseased or injured animals and work to keep them healthy or study research and genetics, nutrition and the development of the animals they work with. Others develop more efficient ways of producing and processing meat, poultry, eggs and dairy products.

Biotechnology Systems includes companies that use biotechnology to enhance plants, animals and microorganisms and to solve global issues, working to increase the world's access to safe and affordable food and clean water. These companies often investigate methods of creating fuel from agricultural byproducts and use a range of tools to better understand the basic biology of life.

Environmental Service Systems includes companies that focus on preventing the harmful effects of human activities, and they may be involved with recycling, water and air pollution control, waste disposal and public health issues. These companies use knowledge of science and engineering to meet environmental regulations and develop new methods to prevent accidents or dangerous situations.

Food Products and Processing Systems includes companies that study the physical, biological and chemical makeup of foods to improve food safety, create better processes, enhance the nutritional value and shelf-life of foods and develop new flavors. These companies may focus on diet, health and food safety by ensuring the quality of foods or work to develop new packaging, new products and new sales opportunities.

Natural Resources Systems includes companies that work to develop, maintain and manage natural environments. These companies work to protect wildlife, maintain parks, consult with research groups and keep green areas.

Plant Systems includes companies that study plants and how they impact our world. They monitor the quality and safety of our food and help consumers make sensible nutritional decisions, solve problems by developing crops that are resistant to insects and improve models to grow more food with less space. Others work to conserve our natural resources.

Power, Structural and Technical Systems includes companies that apply knowledge of engineering, hydraulics, pneumatics, electronics, power, structures and controls to the field of agriculture. These companies also create efficient processes to conserve natural resources and build solutions that impact people around the globe.

Agriscience Fair Research Exposition

The National Finalists' research experience will be an in-person, interactive, networking-style exposition where students will interact with researchers, scientists and industry professionals to engage in meaningful dialogue about their projects and be asked questions by individuals with backgrounds and experiences in unique agriscience fields.

Display

All national finalists for the agriscience fair participate in the Agriscience Fair Research Exposition. The purpose of this event is to connect students and their research to industry. The student's work will be displayed, and the student will be present at an assigned time for the symposium.

Awards and Events Finals

See FFA members in action as they compete for national honors while showcasing the skills they have learned in the areas of agriculture, food and natural resources. Awards and Events Finals presentations are open to all convention and expo participants and guests. Events will also be streamed on FFA Live! streaming broadcast accessed on FFA.org. All events will take place on the first floor of ICC in the five different finals presentation rooms. Check out finals hall here.

Student Showcase Stage

During the 2025 National FFA Convention & Expo, National FFA will feature students and chapters that have excelled in their areas of interest. Students will have the opportunity to present their agriscience fair research and their supervised agricultural experiences. Additionally, look for #SpeakAg Showcase videos and National Chapter and Living to Serve spotlights. FFA talent will also receive time at this location.

LIVING TO SERVE: NATIONAL DAYS OF SERVICE

RESOURCES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Community service is a large part of FFA and is a great way to involve others and call attention to the needs in your own community. Looking for a way to have your chapter members participate in a service project during convention week? The Grants, Scholarships and Service Team has developed a toolkit to aid you in planning a service project during October.

In-Person Service Opportunities: Attendees at the National FFA Convention & Expo have two opportunities to participate in the on-site service project! Learn more here.

Interactive Toolkit for National Days of Service: Click here to access the 2025 interactive toolkit.

How to utilize the interactive toolkit with students: Give the toolkit to your chapter members, divide your students into small groups and task them with creating a service project for October and/or for National FFA Week in February. Then, students can present their service project ideas, and the class/FFA chapter can vote on which one they want to implement. Give students the "Living to Serve: Interactive Toolkit" worksheet to complete.

Show Off Your Chapter's Service Project!

Has your FFA chapter completed a meaningful service project? Fill out a quick form to tell us about it! Your project could be featured on the FFA website. Don't miss the chance to share your story and inspire others!

All About Service: Give this worksheet to your students to learn about past National FFA service projects/events. In this activity, students will choose one of the articles (FFA Response to WWII, Food For America, Building Our American Communities [BOAC], FFA Impact on Rural Communities and Seeds of Hope Campaign) available here and complete the worksheet to learn about the FFA history of service.

Living to Serve Day of Service Mini-Grant: Are your students excited about serving during convention or serving in your local community? Your FFA chapter can apply for up to $500, and funds will be reimbursed after impacts are submitted. Need examples? Here are some Living to Serve Day of Service Mini-Grant events that were funded through the grant program.

Plan Ahead for National FFA Week: Get funding to support your FFA week service event. Your chapter can also apply for a Living to Serve Day of Service Mini-Grant for up to $500 to host a day of service during National FFA Week. The application is easy to complete and can be found at FFA.org/LivingtoServe/Grants. In the application, share how your FFA Week service event will meet a need in the community based on the four focus areas.

Student Activity Sheet: Direct access to the individual student activity sheets for easy upload to learning management systems or printing for classwork can be found here.

When applying for a Living to Serve Day of Service Mini-Grant, you will need to identify what focus area the service activity falls under. Below are the focus areas that need to be identified when applying for the funds.

	Community Safety	Addresses concerns regarding the safety of community members and the preparation, response and recovery efforts that relate to emergency preparedness and natural disasters
	Hunger, Health and Nutrition	Addresses unmet food insecurity needs, increasing physical activity and improving healthy habits to promote physical and mental well-being of the community
	Community Engagement	Addresses matters related to heritage and traditions, connections between community members and civic responsibility throughout the community
	Environmental Responsibility	Addresses issues regarding air and water quality, energy and water efficiency, at-risk ecosystems and conservation to protect and sustain the natural systems upon which all life depends

NFA 90TH CELEBRATION ACTIVITY

Directions:

It's your turn to research and commit to preserving the history of NFA by recognizing its historical significance. Use the following link to access a full collection of digitized archives created by students and faculty at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University: <https://digital.library.ncat.edu/nfa/>. You will create a poster or flyer around the prompts below using the link provided. For the poster or flyer, you will need an additional sheet of paper. You can find the answers by exploring the documents, photos and records in the archives. Once you have completed your poster, answer the reflection questions at the end.

Find a document that references the year the NFA was founded.

What year was it established, and where was the first meeting held?

Find a photo in the archives that stands out to you.

Describe the photo and its historical significance.

Locate a document or photo that displays the NFA emblem.

How does the emblem reflect the values and mission of the organization?

Find a document highlighting a major event in NFA history.

Summarize the event in two or three sentences.

Identify a specific chapter or school featured in the archives.

Share one interesting fact or accomplishment about this chapter.

Find a document or article referencing the merger of the NFA and FFA.

What year did the merger happen, and why was it significant?

Find a document highlighting a major event in NFA history.

Summarize the event in two or three sentences.

Identify at least one key leader in the NFA mentioned in the archives.

What role did the person serve, and what is that person's legacy?

Find a letter that was exchanged between two people.

Share the contents of the letter and its historical significance.

1. What did you learn about the history of the NFA and its significance within agricultural education?
2. What steps can your chapter take to ensure you are preserving the history of your chapter?

POST-CONVENTION THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS

Now that convention is over, it is important to reflect on your experiences and determine how you can apply what you have learned to your life.

- FFA T-shirt Design: Have students be creative and design a convention T-shirt. You can have class competitions or a chapter competition, and if funds allow, create the shirt and sell the winning design. (Word, PDF)
- FFA New Horizons Magazine Cover: Have students utilize the cover template (Word, PDF) to design and create their very own FFA New Horizons magazine cover based on their convention experiences.
- Post-Convention Reflection: Give students this worksheet (Word, PDF) to collect their thoughts and feelings about their convention experiences.
- Student Activity Sheets: Direct access to the individual student activity sheets for easy upload to learning management systems or printing for classwork can be found here.

Relive the action on FFA Live! streaming broadcast on FFA.org and through the 2025 Proceedings, which will be updated on FFA.org as events happen at convention starting this year. You can watch the general sessions, news segments, the awards, Finals Presentations — everything that is recorded. And of course, you can check out the FFA Video Center to find on-demand videos.

CREATE YOUR OWN FFA NEW HORIZONS MAGAZINE COVER

Utilize the magazine cover template (Word, PDF) to design and create your very own FFA New Horizons magazine cover to represent and summarize your convention experience. If you want to design your cover digitally, you can use the PosterMyWall website.

Items to include in your design:

- Picture
- Three or four story titles (like in example covers below)
- Design should be colorful. Be creative!

Examples of past covers:

After you design your cover, answer these questions to reflect.

Explain why you chose the stories and images you did.

How will this convention experience influence some of your future behaviors and decisions?

Looking back at your completed magazine cover, which activity that you experienced during convention was your most enjoyable and why?

POST-CONVENTION REFLECTION

Directions: Reflect on your experiences during the 98th National FFA Convention & Expo by completing the activities below.

1. Five-minute free write: Use the space below to share your thoughts and feelings about your convention experience.

2. Choose one word that represents your convention experience and create an acrostic poem using your chosen word.

Example:

3. What is one thing from your convention experience that you can apply in your personal life and in school?

Personal

School

4. What was your most interesting discovery during this experience?
