III. SAE Information

Upload the most recent Supervised Agricultural Experience (SAE) Agreement or SAE Business Plan PDF for each of your Entrepreneurship SAE projects in this application.

SAE Agreement components should include the following:

- a) Description of SAE: (List all roles and responsibilities the student will have. Be as specific as possible.)
- b) Resources and materials: (List items that will be required for the SAE and note who (e.g., student, teacher, parent/guardian, employer) will provide the items.)
- c) Profit/Loss Responsibility: (If the experience includes the potential for a profit or loss, describe who will receive the profit or incur the liability.)
- d) Agriculture for Youth SAE Risk Assessment and include findings and action items
- e) Signature of student, employer/provider, parent/guardian, and teacher.

SAE Business Plan components should include the following:

- a) Business Description - Describe the overall goal and unique value proposition of your business. List the products and services you will provide and how they meet a need in the marketplace.
- b) Market Analysis - Present the findings of your market research and analysis. This section should highlight your industry knowledge and define your primary target market.
- c) Competitor Assessment - Summarize findings on competitors to your proposed business. Identify any barriers you may face in entering the market.
- d) Marketing Plan - Outline your overall marketing and sales strategy. This section will answer the question, "How will you create a customer base?"
- e) Operating Plan - Describe the organizational structure for the business. List all roles and responsibilities the student(s) will have.
- f) Financial Plan - Prepare financial projections that include an income statement, balance sheet, cash flow statements and expected capital expenditures.
- g) Agriculture for Youth SAE Risk Assessment and include findings and action items
- h) Signature of student, employer/provider, parent/guardian, and teacher.

SAE Collaboration

Notes to be added to the National FFA SAE Award Handbook: SAE projects often involve collaboration with other students, teachers, and adult sponsors. Teams of students can conduct SAE projects, but only an individual student's share of the work will be included in the National FFA SAE Award application. The student should list the collaborators and their roles/responsibilities/descriptions/contributions to the projects in the SAE Collaboration section of the application. If the SAE involves other collaborators, contributors, and owners, include only the student's share in all other sections of the National FFA SAE Award application.
