Part 2

Directions:

After listening to Paxton, we know that we need to follow our own path no matter where that path takes us. Using the timeline below, map out the next five years to the best of your ability. Be sure to consider special-interest milestones (ex. football, FFA, choir, 4-H, FCCLA, etc.), education milestones (ex. graduation, certifications, etc.) and personal milestones (ex. first trip outside your state, first National FFA Convention, etc.). Be sure to include (1) a small picture to represent each item on your timeline, (2) a minimum of 10 milestones with an approximate timeframe and (3) an explanation of why each milestone is important to you. Note: These can always change as your life changes!

Example: earn my American FFA Degree

Summarize what you have learned in one sentence.
