Student Leaders Prepare for the 97th National FFA Convention & Expo

INDIANAPOLIS (Monday, Oct. 7, 2024/National FFA Organization) — In a few weeks, FFA members and supporters from across the country will celebrate agricultural education and agriculture during the 97th National FFA Convention & Expo, Oct. 23-26.

This time-honored tradition will be in person and hosted by the city of Indianapolis.

It's an opportunity for students to be exposed to new career paths and opportunities while celebrating the accomplishments these future leaders have made over the past year. Throughout the week, students will attend general convention sessions where they will be inspired by their peers and, in the expo, explore various career paths. In addition, attendees can participate in career success tours and student and teacher workshops. Those in attendance can also participate in a service event while FFA members across the country can join the National Days of Service in their local communities.

General convention sessions will be aired live on FFA Live! streaming broadcast, RFD-TV and The Cowboy Channel. FFA members and supporters can tune in and watch gavel-to-gavel coverage of the event. To learn more, visit convention.FFA.org.

The National FFA Organization is a school-based national youth leadership development organization of more than 945,000 student members as part of 9,163 local FFA chapters in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Also, catch our Emmy-nominated FFA Live! Inside Convention highlights show each day of the convention.
