

NATIONAL TEACHER AMBASSADORS FOR FFA PROGRAM

The National Teacher Ambassadors for FFA are equipped to help answer questions and provide training related to the various educational resources and experiences offered by the National FFA Organization.

Objectives

- Answer questions and provide training and regular communications related to the various educational resources and experiences offered by National FFA.
- Provide relevant solicited or unsolicited feedback from the educational field to National FFA.
- Serve as “a voice” of the organization to teachers within home states and others across the country.
- Advance teachers’ professional growth.

Professional Growth Opportunities to Benefit Teachers

- Ambassadors go through extensive training to learn about and collaborate on educational resources.
- Ambassadors present multiple educational sessions and are required to gather feedback from participants on how to improve their presentations.
- Throughout the year, ambassadors work with teachers from across the country to brainstorm and share ideas.
- Ambassadors are recognized throughout their respective states as content experts and are often referred to by other teachers as sources of information.

Responsibilities and Expectations

- Participate in summer training.
- Participate in midyear touch-base calls with National FFA staff.
- Communicate at least once a month with each of the following individuals: state FFA staff, state relations specialist and assigned mentor ambassador.

Be a positive, professional example to other teachers and stakeholders throughout your year of service as a National Teacher Ambassador for FFA.

- Present a minimum of one educational session (formal or informal) about educational resources and opportunities on behalf of National FFA. (Formal can be a webinar, workshop, session, etc. Informal can be a conversation with five or fewer individuals.)
 - Have attendees of each formal educational session complete evaluations.
- Complete a communication form on a quarterly basis.
- Share or promote a resource/opportunity from National FFA every other month in one of the following media outlets: state social media pages, state email lists, Ag Ed Discussion Lab on Facebook, Instagram or other relevant outlets.
- Respond to assigned mentor teacher ambassador when they reach out to you.
- Be a positive, professional example to other teachers and stakeholders throughout your year of service as a National Teacher Ambassador for FFA and embody the FFA Value Statements in your daily actions.
- Responsibilities are not limited to this list. There may be opportunities to participate in other activities as available.
