

2013 Team Activity:

In the community of Somerville, there is a proposal to begin hydraulic fracturing in order to extract natural gas. The community is comprised of foliage nurseries, ferneries and residential homes as well as a State Park. This is an area where ground water is the primary water supply.

Your team is to develop a presentation at a county council meeting for the business owners and residents of the town addressing the issues concerning hydraulic fracturing.