

2014 National FFA Extemporaneous Questions

FINAL ROUND

Agriscience and Technology:

1. In what ways has the agriculture industry capitalized on the benefits of technology?
2. What is the most controversial technology being used by farmers today, and how can we communicate its value to consumers.

Agrimarketing and International Agriculture:

1. Are “locally grown” and “organic” trends here to stay? Why or why not.
2. Is fear-based food marketing ethical? Why or why not?

Food and Fiber Systems:

1. How is our food and fiber system a vital part of our national security?
2. What new law or regulation needs to be done away with in the next year to ensure the continued success of agriculture?

Urban Agriculture:

1. How can we use social media and new technology to connect farmers with the urban population and urban population with farmers?
2. Explain the concept of vertical farming and the potential impact it has on a growing world population.