

Team Activity:

You are a mixed animal practice that services several medium to large, 300-2000 cow, dairy operations. A mid-size dairy operation calls your clinic for a consultation because they are having serious issues with salmonella in their herd. Your veterinary team visits the farm to assess the operation and make recommendations to the dairy owner to clean up the issues.